COUPLES CLUB REPORT

Pharaoh and His Great Royal Wife preside over the party.

Robin Hood and Maid Marian pose for a photo before heading back to Sherwood Forest.

Pharaoh and His Great Royal Wife hosted the Couples Club masquerade party on February 20 with able assistance from Betty Crocker & Old MacDonald. They were joined by a Team Canada hockey player and one of his many fans, Mr. & Mrs. Kevin Harvick en route to a NASCAR race, and all the way from Sherwood Forest, Robin Hood & Maid Marian. Arriving late from a doctor's appointment were Jon & Kate Gosselin (plus the twins) who shared the news from the ultrasound: six more to join their family! Guests were disappointed to hear that Burger King and Dairy Queen were unable to attend due to illness and sincerely hope it wasn't food poisoning.

Due to technical difficulties with middle age memory, the announced DVDs on communication in marriage were not shown. The group enjoyed delicious refreshments and a wacky game called Couplez which was won by the most recently married couple, Ted & Tara MacLean.

The next Couples Club event will be a pizza party in the youth room on Saturday, March 20. All married and engaged couples are invited to come.

WEEKEND TO REMEMBER CONFERENCE

Marriage is defined by memories. They can be memories of joy and fulfillment, or of pain and heartbreak. It all depends on how well you apply the principles that make marriage thrive.

For more than 30 years, FamilyLife's Weekend to Remember conference has been helping couples create the kind of memories that build a healthy marriage. Remember your marriage. Remember this weekend.

Weekend to Remember is a three-day conference centred around God's design for marriage and family. The environment is fun, non-threatening, and often hilarious. It's a wonderful time for couples to refresh good marriages or heal troubled ones.

Conferences are offered in locations across Canada every year. Whether you're engaged, newlywed, married for 40 years or remarried, enrich your marriage and begin a godly legacy for your family by attending a conference near you. It'll be an experience you'll never forget.

For more information please speak to Graham or Celinda Crandall.

GRACE – BY JADE HONG

Grace

They call me Graceless

They say I'm clumsy

When I trip over chairs

They call me Graceless

They say I'm accident prone

When I fall down the stairs

I am not graceless

Because my Lord died for me

They call me Graceless

But that's not what I was meant to be

They call me Graceless

They say I'm awkward

When I tangle up my feet

They call me Graceless

They say I'm uncoordinated

When I fall onto my seat

I am not graceless

Because He died for my sin

How can you say I'm graceless

When it's His grace that I'm in?

The group also meets on Sunday mornings at 8:45 am for a Men's Prayer Group. For more information on the group please speak to Jerry Pugh, Troy Rickard or Paul Blackmore.
